MARY LYDIA LEE HAUSEY

Mary Lydia Lee is loved by all because of her unusual ability to care for the ill and aged.

Lydia was born to Orson Henry and Rachel Ann Jones Lee on April 15, 1889, in Heber, Utah.

She spent her early life in Wasatch County and attended school there.

On September 20, 1920, she married George H. Hausey of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, in Le Grande, Oregon.

Since his death, February 27, 1950, she has devoted her entire time to the operation of a rest home for aged women.

The old Abraham Hatch residence at 81 East Center, at first proved adequate, but later she found it necessary to remodel and use her home on First West.

During the nine years of service with her gifts of kindness, tolerance, mercy, compassion and encouragement, she has brought joy and comfort to 25 patients.
